

the wisconsin no call list is working and should not be changed by federal mandated changes which will permit calls not now permitted by wisconsin. Additionally the no call laws should be strengthened to place limits political campaign calls.